Welcome To Worship

August 5, 2018

Summer Rerun of February 18, 2018

"Welcome What's Next"

First Week of Lent 2018

Welcome to this time of being with God and each other.

*On a spiritual quest? Reached a tipping point? Reach out to Tippe! You are important to us.
 In Christ, there are no strangers, only new and wonderful people to meet each day!
 If you are visiting today, please be sure to sign our Guest Book at the back of the sanctuary or fill out a pew card and drop it in the offering plate.
 Our pastor would be glad to call you or pay you a personal visit.
 Just let us know as you sign in...and take a Welcome Packet, too!
 Come back often. We care! We are open for faith! Affirming and open to all!*

Helpful Worship Information

We're Glad You've Come.

*This is a safe place, a sanctuary of worship and prayer, comfort and justice-seeking for all God's people and all are welcome here
 ...just as you are.*

Our church is a safe sanctuary for children.

We are proactive to protect our children with trained staff, enlightened volunteers, and aware congregants.

No concealed weapons of any type are allowed on Tippecanoe Church premises.

Our children are invited to remain in worship with us. The exception is first and third Sundays of the months during the program year when our families host

"Children's Church" right after Kids' Time.

We ask children be accompanied by an adult at all times throughout our morning together!

During worship, children are welcome to use a book, stuffed animal, or crayons and papers from the bottom shelf of the cart at the back of the sanctuary. We want the sanctuary to be home to them.

When your child (1st grade and under) is restless, when you are, when those around you are...
 you're/we're probably asking too much of everyone.
 Please let your child be in the nursery at times like this.
 Please return borrowed "goodies" to the cart after worship.

Infant through 1st Grade Care is available all during worship down the stairs to the right to the "nursery."

In the order of worship, please note... the * indicates times to stand as you are able.

Today in Worship

We open our hearts and minds to the texts, confronting the radical nature of God's wisdom.

"Welcome What's Next"

Today's wisdom teachings remind us we start our Lenten journey (start each day) already held within God's covenant, and so, are made resilient for life's journey! We are made able through our relationship with Holiness...and each other...to welcome...what comes next!

In each Sunday in Lent we shared in Holy Communion together.

Karen will lead us in Communion on Sunday, August 26th.

All God's adults and children are welcome at Table no matter where you are on your own faith journey!

Thanks for being here today!

In deepest gratitude, we give God thanks for your presence with us in worship!

WARNING...

If you take the Bible literally you may be disappointed here. We hope not, but we think you should know that we don't take all of scripture literally...
 any more than Jesus did,
 but we DO take it all seriously.

As you enter, please use this time to greet friends, welcome newcomers, and join in the spirit of community.

As the music begins, gift yourself a few moments of quiet perhaps becoming present to your own life -- your desires and needs and joys. Perhaps using this photo and reflective question to center yourself.

God rejoices in your coming and meets you this morning in special ways that are meant just for you.

Guided by the wisdom of Isaiah 43:18-19

TODAY'S WORSHIP

First Week of Lent

Why do we worship? Think on this...

Worship is a human activity, celebrated in the presentness of God...the Sacred, rather than praise required of us by God. And so the "goal" is to help us know (head in our heart) how we relate as individuals to ourselves, others, world, universe.

To celebrate that relationship! To touch sources of creative transformation! To reinterpret our experiences! To reaffirm living in this world which is indeed our sacred and worshipful work to do!

"Welcome What's Next"

One: Child of God:

We go out into the darkness... into what will come next.

✧ Opening Ourselves To God's Grace

✧ Sharing Our Inner Most Lives With God

Excerpt, revised, from “The Resiliency Route to Authentic Self-Esteem
and Life Success” by Nan
Henderson, M.S.W.

Alternative Language:
I am able to...

-do postmortem on my past

-evaluate my expectations

-reinforce new roads

-fail forward

-eliminate extremes

-create and not compare

-transcend the moment or situation

This list taken from “better than Perfect”

Keep this weekly check list so at Lent’s end you are filled with the passion of who you are and who you are becoming!

Bring to mind and heart a challenging time or situation you faced this week. Imagine God listening in...for God is! God knows and invites you to contemplate the strengths/resiliency attributes, which you used just this past week to move forward, to live into what comes next.

Then, if you could add another resilience attribute to your desired personal response repertoire, which one would you choose? Put a + by it.

- Relationships — Sociability/ability to be a friend/ability to form positive relationships
- Humor — Has a good sense of humor
- Inner Direction — Bases choices/decisions on internal evaluation (internal locus of control)
- Perceptiveness — Insightful understanding of people and situations
- Independence — “Adaptive” distancing from unhealthy people and situations/autonomy
- Positive View of Personal Future — Optimism; expects a positive future
- Flexibility — Can adjust to change; can bend as necessary to positively cope with situations
- Love of Learning — Capacity for and connection to learning
- Self-motivation — Internal initiative and positive motivation from within
- Competence — Is “good at something”/personal competence
- Self-Worth — Feelings of self-worth and self-confidence
- Spirituality — Personal faith in something greater
- Perseverance — Keeps on despite difficulty; doesn’t give up
- Creativity — Expresses self through artistic endeavor

Reflect upon how wonderful you are and all you have going for you. Take this in deeply. Say to yourself: I am _____. Perhaps do this several times naming your resiliencies.

As you move into the next week, what of this goes with you...?

Please listen once and then sing.

Please call Patti at 630-674-1272 if you would like the Tippe Prayer Chain to lift a special prayer for you this week.

DO YOU WANT TO FAST THIS LENT?

In the words of Pope Francis

- Fast from hurting words and say kind words.

- Fast from worries and have trust in God.
- Fast from complaints and contemplate simplicity.
- Fast from pressures and be prayerful.
- Fast from bitterness and fill your hearts with joy.
- Fast from selfishness and be compassionate to others.
- Fast from grudges and be reconciled.
- Fast from words and be silent so you can listen.

Opening Ourselves to God's Grace

In Lent we turn toward what has meaning in our lives and notice what drops away as we do. We turn toward God. Then we are more freely able to focus anew on that which is life giving. More self-aware, we are more able to access our core resiliencies...and grow competence in some new ways of being!

Did you know that in Greek, "repent" is "metanoia," which means "adopt a new consciousness?"

Bring to mind and heart a challenging time or situation you faced this week.

Imagine God listening in...for God is!

God knows and invites you to contemplate the resiliency attributes listed on page 7.
Select one you used just this past week – to move forward, to live into what comes next.

Every gift matters all the time!

Pastor Karen has agreed that Tippe would be a good place for a shoe collection box. It is outside the church door so you can drop off shoes any time during the day from now until August 7.

WAVE's youth team has been working all summer toward a big public awareness event at noon on August 9 -- a Silent March of shoes on the steps of the State Capitol, representing the lives lost to gun violence.

But, they need your help to make this event happen!

Please contribute your old or outgrown shoes at one of the following locations during business hours:

Friends Meeting House, 3224 N Gordon Pl, Milwaukee

Pewaukee Public Library, 210 Main St, Pewaukee

Shorewood High School, main office, 1701 E Capitol Dr, Shorewood

WAVE office, 4100 W. River Lane, Brown Deer

First Congregational Church, main office, 1609 University Avenue, Madison

Or at Tippecanoe Church!!

Please call our office at 414-351-9283 for a complete list of drop-off locations; the number of locations is growing, and there will be one near you!

Just like the lives lost to gun violence, the donated shoes can be men's, women's, or children's. They can be work shoes, fun shoes, or athletic shoes -- in like-new shape or with a long history of getting things done.

The shoes we collect will serve as a stark reminder that the lives lost to gun violence each year is a crisis that requires immediate action.

Let your shoes speak for someone whose voice was tragically silenced by a gun.
