

ASLC Science Saturdays

Students in grades K4-5th are invited to join us for the Fall, Winter, and Spring sessions of the popular Arts and Science Literacy Camp (ASLC) as we extend the summer hands-on fun to include several Saturdays during the school year!

Meet new friends or hang out with old ones as we explore more nature themes through the arts and literacy!

Limited seats are available - sign up for one or more!

$15 per child, per session

Classes take place at Tippecanoe Presbyterian: 125 West Saveland, Milwaukee, 53207
Additional classes to be scheduled through May...stay tuned!

Please mark the sessions you would like your child to attend:

- November 3 9:00 a.m. - noon
Dem Bones: Join this nature camp as we explore the composition of bones, why they are important and how animals and people keep their bones healthy and strong! Bring your observation skills and curiosity to this exciting camp!!
- December 1 9:00 a.m. - noon
States of Matter: We don't mean Wisconsin or Tennessee!! Come and check out the way that liquids ebb and flow and sometimes not... as we conduct experiments highlighting molecules and how they react and change!
- January 5 9:00 a.m. - noon
Snowflakes: Snowflakes drifting down... crystals all around... it's time to look at the science of snow! Wear your coats, boots, hats and gloves as we explore the snowy world around us! No snow no worries!!
- February 2 9:00 a.m. - noon
Birdfest 2019: Ornithologists needed! Backyard birds will be around looking for food and places to stay warm so let's roll out the red carpet and prepare bird feasts for our feathered friends!
