Welcome To Worship

July 21, 2019

9:30 a.m.

Summer Rerun of October 21, 2018

The Road Home

Welcome to this time of being with God and each other.

*On a spiritual quest? Reached a tipping point? Reach out to Tippe! You are important to us.
 In Christ, there are no strangers, only new and wonderful people to meet each day!
 If you are visiting today, please be sure to sign our Guest Book at the back of the sanctuary or fill out a pew card and drop it in the offering plate.
 Our pastor would be glad to call you or pay you a personal visit.
 Just let us know as you sign in...and take a Welcome Packet, too!
 Come back often. We care! We are open for faith! Affirming and open to all!*

Helpful Worship Information

We're Glad You've Come.

*This is a safe place, a sanctuary of worship and prayer, comfort and justice-seeking for all God's people and all are welcome here
 ...just as you are.*

Our church is a safe sanctuary for children.

We are proactive to protect our children with trained staff, enlightened volunteers, and aware congregants.

No concealed weapons of any type are allowed on Tippecanoe Church premises.

Our children are invited to remain in worship with us. "Children's Wisdom Circle" is on break until September when the program year begins again.

We ask children be accompanied by an adult at all times throughout our morning together!

During worship, children are welcome to use a book, stuffed animal, or crayons and papers from the bottom shelf of the cart at the back of the sanctuary. We want the sanctuary to be home to them. Please return borrowed "goodies" to the cart after worship.

When your child (1st grade and under) is restless, when you are, when those around you are... you're/we're probably asking too much of everyone. Please let your child be in the nursery at times like this.

Infant through 1st Grade Care can be available all during worship down the stairs in the Cloud Room which is our "nursery."

 See note at end of worship bulletin regarding summer nursery. **

In the order of worship, please note... the * indicates times to stand as you are able.

Today in Worship

We open our hearts and minds to the texts, confronting the radical nature of God's wisdom.

We've all heard it said...life is not a destination at which we strive to arrive, but a journey. Can we keep walking? Keep going down the road? Entertain a new road...home?

Today's Wisdom Teachings call us to honor God's majesty in the world and in our lives, asking ourselves: Where do I struggle with seeking privilege of position and comfort above the possibility of service and challenge? How can I open up more to "awe and wonder" in the midst of it all? What do Jesus' words have to do with me this morning?

Thanks to our dear friend Don Mendenhall for permission to use his breath-taking photography to enhance our worship this day!

Thanks for being here today!

In deepest gratitude, we give God thanks for your presence with us in worship!

WARNING....

If you take the Bible literally you may be disappointed here. We hope not, but we think you should know that we don't take all of scripture literally... any more than Jesus did, but we DO take it all seriously.

As you enter, please use this time to greet friends, welcome newcomers, and join in the spirit of community.

As the music begins, gift yourself a few moments of quiet perhaps becoming present to your own life -- your desires and needs and joys. Perhaps using this photo and reflective question to center yourself.

God rejoices in your coming and meets you this morning in special ways that are meant just for you.

Based upon today's theme and music's lyrics.

TODAY'S WORSHIP

Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Why do we worship? Think on this...

Worship is a human activity, celebrated in the presentness of God...the Sacred, rather than praise required of us by God. And so the "goal" is to help us know (head in our heart) how we relate as individuals to ourselves, others, world, universe.

To celebrate that relationship! To touch sources of creative transformation! To reinterpret our experiences! To reaffirm living in this world which is indeed our sacred and worshipful work to do!

All: I have wandered and long to know, where is a way...a road that will lead me home?

One: After wind, after rain...when the dark is done, we awake to Your voice calling from far away...You call and we rise up. You call us away. You lead us home.

All: With a song of love in my heart, I come to know ...there is no such beauty as being home...where we are one, where we belong. O Holiness, You lead us home.

✧ Opening Ourselves To God's Grace

✧ Sharing Our Inner Most Lives With God

Lord, I struggle...like James and John...to feel good about myself. I too would like to think that I am good enough to sit at your side...that You "like" me that much. Like them, I would like to think my intentions are worthy and what I am already doing is enough...and that You "like" me!

Maybe that's it, Lord. You invite me to really look at my intentions and what I am actually doing...and not doing, not intending...and know You "like" me anyways!

Lord God, help me to resist wanting life to be on my terms. Help me resist being anchored in worldly terms instead of Your possibilities. Help me reassess and truly see when and where I am seated in places of status. To redefine status!

Help me see myself part of Your glorious creation and worthy of Your attention...just as I am...wherever I sit!

Help me not to laud my accomplishments or my will over others...as a way of covering up my true feelings about my inadequacies...or theirs.

Lord, I ask it. Help me find the road home...to You!

Based upon today's wisdom teachings

Read these words! These may be the best words of all....just for you this morning!

✧A Moment With God For Each Of Us...

You may wish to share with God your feelings of not being good enough the way you are; or you may name with God how you have begun to find joy in new ways of seeing yourself and others; or you may simply invite Jesus to come sit beside you in the pew this morning shining his healing light all around and through you.

Let there be some quiet. We will be “stilled” together for 5 minutes or so! You have time....go deeper....

✧Kyrie

After wind, after rain, when the dark is...done,
As I wake from a dream in the gold of day,

Adapted from Marianne Williamson's "Our Deepest Fear"

Opening to God's Grace

✧ Affirming Our Faith With Intention

Our deepest fear is not that we are inadequate.
Our deepest fear is that we are powerful beyond measure.
It is our light not our darkness that most frightens us.

We ask ourselves who am I to be brilliant,
gorgeous, talented, fabulous?

Actually, who am I not to be?
I am a child of God.

My playing small doesn't serve the world.
There's nothing enlightened about shrinking so other people won't feel insecure around me.

We were born to make manifest the glory of God
that is within us.

It's not just in some of us;
it's in everyone!

And as each of us let our light shine,
we unconsciously give other people permission to do the same.
As we are liberated from our own fear,
our presence automatically liberates others.

And...then we will all be on... that road home.

✧ Naming Our Gratitudes, Joys, and Concerns

In this election season, as Christians we are mindful of our call to be politically involved and to vote. There is a separation of church and state but not religion and politics! AND we also honor our religious sensibility which guides us to be mindful of how and when and where we share our views...setting and timing and "audience" and words chosen matter!

Here at Tippe we welcome divergent thinking and a range of commitment. We are enhanced by our diversity and together we hold worship and prayer as sacred times of union in which we are encouraged to give voice to issues calling out for our attention. However, it is not appropriate to give voice to preference concerning candidates at such times.

We participate in the Wisconsin Council of Churches Covenant of Civility signed by over 175 religious leaders statewide.

✧Postlude

** Because of the summer schedules of our families, nursery care is not provided each Sunday. Rather, folks can arrange for care any given Sunday at Tippe by contacting Pastor Karen, or Natalia directly. Connect with Pastor Karen at pastor.tippechurch@gmail.com. We usually need a few days' notice. BUT, do know our children are welcome to stay with us in worship no matter their age as we care to support them and embrace the notion that children are to be seen and heard! Regular weekly nursery care resumes in September. **

Opening Ourselves to God's Grace

We've all heard it said...life is not a destination at which we strive to arrive, but a journey. Can we keep walking? Keep going down the road? Entertain a new road...home?

Like the disciples, we are on a journey, seeking the road that will take us home to oneness with our God. The disciples seemed to have no trouble putting their real questions to Jesus. They were even willing to risk looking foolish in order to ask them! Jesus never turned their questions away and never gave up on them. Through Jesus's life we come to know our God is willing to meet us wherever we are on our life's journey in order to bring us truth, relief, and joy...to guide us to that road home.

Each with our own beloved story, shaped anew by our Holy Story, we lift our prayers silently to our God using the reflection on Page 4 to guide us.
