Welcome To Worship

December 8, 2019

9:30 a.m.

"This Advent: O Come!"

Welcome to this time of being with God and each other.

*On a spiritual quest? Reached a tipping point? Reach out to Tippe! You are important to us.
 In Christ, there are no strangers, only new and wonderful people to meet each day!
 If you are visiting today, please be sure to sign our Guest Book at the back of the sanctuary or fill out a pew card and drop it in the offering plate.
 Our pastor would be glad to call you or pay you a personal visit.
 Just let us know as you sign in...and take a Welcome Packet, too!
 Come back often. We care! We are open for faith! Affirming and open to all!*

Helpful Worship Information

We're Glad You've Come.

*This is a safe place, a sanctuary of worship and prayer, comfort and justice-seeking for all God's people and all are welcome here
 ...just as you are.*

Our church is a safe sanctuary for children.

We are proactive to protect our children with trained staff, enlightened volunteers, and aware congregants.

No concealed weapons of any type are allowed on Tippecanoe Church premises.

Our children are invited to remain in worship with us.

We ask children be accompanied by an adult at all times throughout our morning together!

During worship, children are welcome to use a book, stuffed animal, or crayons and papers from the bottom shelf of the cart at the back of the sanctuary. We want the sanctuary to be home to them. Please return borrowed "goodies" to the cart after worship.

When your child (1st grade and under) is restless, when you are, when those around you are...

you're/we're probably asking too much of everyone. Please let your child be in the nursery at times like this.

Infant through 1st Grade Care is available all during worship down the stairs in the Cloud Room which is our "nursery."

In the order of worship, please note... the * indicates times to stand as you are able.

Today in Worship

We open our hearts and minds to the texts, confronting the radical nature of God's wisdom.

"This Advent: O Come!"

It's Advent... a time to come, O Do Come... as Emmanuel readies to come... be One with us...again!

In today's Wisdom Teachings, we are reminded we can "come to the manger" because we are rooted in hope and watered with love. Each of us prepares in our own way...always remembering our faith gives us what the world cannot...hope, peace, joy, and love. These are the movements of Advent set against the background of purpled waiting. The stories all assure us God's future for us is steeped in goodness, and so the waiting is not idle, but faith-filled. So, Come! O Come!

Thanks for being here today!

In deepest gratitude, we give God thanks for your presence with us in worship!

WARNING...

If you take the Bible literally you may be disappointed here. We hope not, but we think you should know that we don't take all of scripture literally... any more than Jesus did, but we DO take it all seriously.

As you enter, please use this time to greet friends, welcome newcomers, and join in the spirit of community.

As the music begins, gift yourself a few moments of quiet perhaps becoming present to your own life -- your desires and needs and joys. Perhaps using this photo and reflective question to center yourself.

God rejoices in your coming and meets you this morning in special ways that are meant just for you.

Lord God, Advent is a time of promise when we hope for "more". For most of us...we're hoping for...some peace! But I have to admit to myself, I am not always able to feel hope alive in me...even during this season of hope and promise. At times, I act in ways that deny hope, deny peace a chance to take hold in my life. I ignore the wisdom of your Word and don't seek out "straight paths" to new life. It's almost as if I'd rather stay in the "rough places" rather than find a "smooth highway". Often I know how to do "rough" better than "smooth".

But I do hear a voice crying out in the wilderness. Lord God, it's my own voice calling me to do life differently! Help me prepare a way for you to come into my life...help me know how to be available to doing even one thing in a new way, given all the stresses in my life which keep me held in place. Help me begin to walk my life on a straight path that is more simple and freeing. Help me walk with other believers, supported and trusting You are with us. Root me in Your love and rain on me Your refreshing energy.

(Go deeper...)

This Advent, I come! I come. O Come to me, sweet Holiness!

(Release a sigh...)

Read these words! These may be the best words of all...just for you this morning!

MaryBeth will play once, please sing twice.

Hymnal #466

Our Sung Response

You are invited to light a prayer candle now and anytime in worship you hear a prayer lifted or answered.

Please remain seated.

✧A Moment With God For Each Of Us...

✧You may wish to name with God the “rough” places in your life that block you from hoping for more; or you may share with God a simple freedom you have discovered and wonder with God how to “grow” its impact on your living; or you may simply invite Jesus to come sit beside you in the pew this morning shining his healing light all around and through you.

Let there be some quiet. We will be “stilled” together for 5 minutes or so! You have time...go deeper...

❖ Affirming Our Faith With Intention

On this blessed day, O Come let us sit at a table of a coming peace, for to miss the coming peace of Christmas is to miss its holiest secret.

Let us ready to enter into the spiritual delights which are the natural heritage of childlike hearts. Let us withdraw from the cold and barren world of prosaic fact, if only for a season;

That we may warm ourselves by the fireside of fancy, and take counsel in the wisdom of poetry and legend:

Blessed are they who have vision enough
to behold a guiding star
in the dark mystery which girdles the earth.

Blessed are they who have imagination enough to detect the music of celestial voices
in the midnight hours of life.

Blessed are they who have faith enough to contemplate a world of peace and justice in the midst of present wrong and strife.

Blessed are they who have zest enough to take delight in simple things.

Blessed are they who have wisdom enough to know that the Kingdom of Heaven is very close at hand, and that all may enter in who have eyes to see
and ears to hear and hearts to understand.

Opening Ourselves to God's Grace

Our call as Christians is not to come to church, but to go out into the world. Our call as Christians in Advent is not to walk to Bethlehem, but to go through Bethlehem on our way to the rest of our lives...wherever it is faith leads us...making Christ-mas really real.

So...Oh Holy One, here we come! With each step we take, with a sigh too deep for words, we lean back into the everlasting arms of our God. Full of wonder, waiting yet not passive, passionate about the coming birth of this Christ child in our lives, we share our real lives with our God during this most holy of seasons.

Each with our own beloved story, as we surrender pretenses and open to God...shaped anew by our Holy Story, we lift our prayers silently to our God using the reflection on Page 5 to guide us.
