Welcome To Worship

August 9, 2020

Summer Rerun of December 1, 2019

9:30 a.m.

"This Advent: O Come!"

Welcome to this time of being with God and each other.

*On a spiritual quest? Reached a tipping point? Reach out to Tippe! You are important to us.
 In Christ, there are no strangers, only new and wonderful people to meet each day!
 If you are visiting today, please be sure to sign our Guest Book at the back of the sanctuary or fill out a pew card and drop it in the offering plate.
 Our pastor would be glad to call you or pay you a personal visit.
 Just let us know as you sign in...and take a Welcome Packet, too!
 Come back often. We care! We are open for faith! Affirming and open to all!*

Helpful Worship Information

We're Glad You've Come.

*This is a safe place, a sanctuary of worship and prayer, comfort and justice-seeking for all God's people and all are welcome here
 ...just as you are.*

Our church is a safe sanctuary for children.

We are proactive to protect our children with trained staff, enlightened volunteers, and aware congregants.

No concealed weapons of any type are allowed on Tippecanoe Church premises.

Our children are invited to remain in worship with us. "Children's Wisdom Circle" is on break.

We ask children be accompanied by an adult at all times throughout our morning together!

During worship, children are welcome to use a book, stuffed animal, or crayons and papers from the bottom shelf of the cart at the back of the sanctuary. We want the sanctuary to be home to them. Please return borrowed "goodies" to the cart after worship.

When your child (1st grade and under) is restless, when you are, when those around you are...
 you're/we're probably asking too much of everyone.
 Please let your child be in the nursery at times like this.

Infant through 1st Grade Care is available all during worship down the stairs in the Cloud Room which is our "nursery."

In the order of worship, please note... the * indicates times to stand as you are able.

Today in Worship

We open our hearts and minds to the texts, confronting the radical nature of God's wisdom.

"This Advent: O Come!"

It's Advent... a time to come, O Do Come... as Emmanuel readies to come... be One with us...again!

In today's Wisdom Teachings we hear of a promise and a way to let ourselves be taken...with the Advent of something new! And so be able to come...to give ourselves anew! The timing is ours to choose!

Today, we celebrate God's Love as we feast in Holy Communion. All are welcome at Table together ...wherever you are on your faith journey, whatever your age or tradition, whatever your need.

*Thanks for being here today!
 In deepest gratitude, we give God thanks for your presence with us in worship!*

WARNING...

If you take the Bible literally you may be disappointed here. We hope not, but we think you should know that we don't take all of scripture literally...any more than Jesus did, but we DO take it all seriously.

As you enter, please use this time to greet friends, welcome newcomers, and join in the spirit of community.

As the music begins, gift yourself a few moments of quiet perhaps becoming present to your own life -- your desires and needs and joys. Perhaps using this photo and reflective question to center yourself.

God rejoices in your coming and meets you this morning in special ways that are meant just for you.

Gathering As God's People

Please note there is no table in the story yet and the Christ Candle is not yet lit...the babe is yet to be born! We will light an Advent Candle each week as we come...

Based on Ann Weem's poem, In Search Of Kneeling Places, let these words serve as our confessed longing and affirmation of faithfulness.

✧ Sharing Our Inner Most Lives With God

In my heart lies a Bethlehem, an inn where I must ultimately answer whether there is room or not. When I am Bethlehem-bound, I experience my own advent in His. When I am Bethlehem-bound, I can no longer look the other way conveniently not seeing stars, not hearing angel voices. I can no longer distract or excuse myself by busily tending my sheep or my kingdoms.

(Go deeper...)

This Advent I come to Bethlehem and see this thing the Lord has made known to us...I come! I seek again to live the Universal pattern of "Unconditional Love" Jesus models for us..."this" the archetypal birthing story of our faith and our very lives.

So...in the midst of shopping sprees, Lord, help me ponder in my heart the Gift of Gifts. Through the tinsel, Lord, help me look for the gold of the Christmas Star. In the excitement and confusion, in the merry chaos, Lord let me listen for the brush of angels' wings.

(Go deeper...)

This Advent, I come! I come. O Come to me, sweet Holiness!

(Release a sigh...)

Read these words! These may be the best words of all...just for you this morning!

Janet will play once, please sing twice.

Hymnal #466

Our Sung Response

You are invited to light a prayer candle now and anytime in worship you hear a prayer lifted or answered.

Please remain seated.

✧A Moment With God For Each Of Us...

✧You may wish to name with God a way in which you feel scattered, distracted, stretched too thin; or you may share with God a new sense of your own empowerment to resist the clutter of the season, now focusing on deepest meaning for your life; or you may simply invite Jesus to come sit beside you in the pew this morning shining his healing light all around and through you.

Let there be some quiet. We will be "stilled" together for 5 minutes or so! You have time...go deeper...

✧Kyrie

O Come and Fill Our Hearts with Your peace.
You alone, O Lord, are holy.

On this blessed day, O Come let us sit at a table of coming peace, for to miss the coming peace of Christmas is to miss its holiest secret.

Let us ready to enter into the spiritual delights which are the natural heritage of childlike hearts. Let us withdraw from the cold and barren world of prosaic fact, if only for a season;

That we may warm ourselves by the fireside of fancy, and take counsel in the wisdom of poetry and legend:

Blessed are they who have vision enough to behold a guiding star in the dark mystery which girdles the earth.

Blessed are they who have imagination enough to detect the music of celestial voices in the midnight hours of life.

Blessed are they who have faith enough to contemplate a world of peace and justice in the midst of present wrong and strife.

Blessed are they who have zest enough to take delight in simple things.

Blessed are they who have wisdom enough to know that the Kingdom of Heaven is very close at hand, and that all may enter in who have eyes to see and ears to hear and hearts to understand.

Great Prayer of Thanksgiving

Pastor: Lord God, as once You came to us in a stable in Bethlehem, You come now...the bread and wine to feed what is hungry within us, offering truth, inviting us to walk the talk to Bethlehem and beyond.

People: We open to the mystery that is Advent, that is Christ, that is God With Us...Emmanuel.

Pastor: This table: it is hope in our deserts, a well where love springs, a place where fountains of living water pour through our needs.

People: This place: it is where bread is broken and wine is poured, where life is offered and heaven is opened, where Jesus gathers us making us all welcome.

Pastor: This story: it saves the best till last! For even as we await the birth of Christ, we are Easter people!

Gracious God, You fill our hearts with the sustenance of heaven, and within a spirit of giving thanks, we celebrate Your freely giving of Yourself to each of us -- Divine Lover of each one here gathered...and of all people throughout the world and time! Continues on next page...

Friends, it takes courage to come! The Mystery surrounds us, beckons us, assures us we go not into the night, but toward a star...a star bringing light to our darkness, hope to our lives, freedom and confidence to our days.

As we open to the mystery that is God in love with each of us, all of us, let us join in giving God our praise as we affirm our faith, singing:

Emmanuel, Emmanuel,
His name is called Emmanuel;
God with us, revealed in us;
His name is called Emmanuel.

✧ Words of Invitation and the Breaking of the Bread Communion of the People

~We will remain seated to pass to each other the Elements.~

As we commune, please continue to sing the Kyrie.

As you leave, you are invited to linger longer enjoying sanctuary time. The kneeler is also available for a time of quiet prayer. Please take a copy of a previous prompting from the Cart in the back for your own or another's enrichment.

Sending Forth With Blessing

Opening Ourselves to God's Grace

Our call as Christians is not to come to church, but to go out into the world. Our call as Christians in Advent is not to walk to Bethlehem, but to go through Bethlehem on our way to the rest of our lives...wherever it is faith leads us...making Christ-mas really real.

Oh Holy One, we come! With each step we take, with a sigh too deep for words, we lean back into the everlasting arms of our God. Full of wonder, waiting yet not passive, passionate about the coming birth of this Christ child in our lives, we share our real lives with our God during this most holy of seasons.

Each with our own beloved story, as we surrender pretenses and open to God...shaped anew by our Holy Story, we lift our prayers silently to our God using the reflection on Page 5 to guide us.
