✧Opening Ourselves to God's Grace

✧Sharing Our Inner Most Lives with God

Lord God, in a world where disaster and despair greet each other daily, I so long for Your steadfast love and faithfulness to meet! Things have got to change! If only Your righteousness and peace would kiss...in me! It would give me courage to do what I can do in this world, and be "who" you make me to be in this world...and that would change...everything! I guess for that to happen steadfast love and faithfulness would have to meld together in me first. Geeze...

You see my best efforts thus far, well...often they are like fading flowers, and seem to wither and die. In honest moments, I guess I know I am not being as faithful as You call me to be! To do so is so uncomfortable in this risky, politicized world!

Lord, I cry out to be comforted, even as I do strive to comfort others. I don't quite know how to see my way through the tasks at hand so prepare a way in me.

I need to find a way out of this wilderness and go a straight way home. I need to acknowledge the gift that I am...and give it...to myself...so I can give my very best to others. Holy Mother, You hear my prayer. Please hold my hand...

✧You may wish to name with God what within you needs most to be awoken with a kiss this morning; or you may share a time your best efforts brought comfort to another...or, yourself...and ask to be sustained in these ways; or you may simply invite Jesus to come beside you this morning shining his healing light all around and through you.

✧ Affirming Our Faith with Intention

For some of us, we are able to freely lift these words. For others of us, these words capture our prayer. For all of us, grace is needed...and grace abounds! So, in faith, let us say:

Every day that I live becomes more meaningful, more fulfilled, and, for me, much more enriching. Time is too short, I've discovered, so I honor all the tremendous revelations of the love of God which life has given me: amazing new insights, new visions, new possibilities, new dimensions of human living, new relationships with people around me, new depths of concern...of agony, and of joy which make my life --yes, I can truly say it—so deeply meaningful that I'm eager when I go to bed at night to awake the next morning and say, "It's a new day, a new life, it's a new experience of God and of Humankind
