Creating Possibility: Learning to Live "As If!"

*I can move from a "What if" ...this or that happens approach to life to an "Even though" ...this or that happens approach to life
I can because I Believe!*

Welcome to this time of being with God and each other.

✧Becoming Present to God and Each Other...Our Check-in:

How Are You As You Arrive...how is it with your spirit?

✧Gathering as God’s People:

Pastor: “Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that you may discern what is God’s deepest desire, what is good and acceptable and perfect.” “Live as if there were no tomorrow. Learn as if you were to live forever.” (Paul and Mahatma Gandhi)

All: Sing like no one is listening. Love like you’ve never been hurt. Dance like nobody’s watching, and live like heaven is on earth. (Twain) Live like you “Believe.” Live “Even Though.” Live “As If” the new realm is here and now. Good News! It is!

✧Sharing Our Inner Most Lives with God

As a Christian, I am called to live “as if” the divine energies of love and compassion inhabit each moment of each day. The Child of Humanity implores me to live in the Realm of God. A divinely, rightly ordered kingdom oriented around truth, loving kindness, right relationships, justice...

Imagine! Easter every day!

What would my personal life look like if love truly reigned, PAUSE and what would my relationships look like if I took time to orient around loving kindness, PAUSE and what would my relationship with Earth look like if I realized my kinship with all creatures and nature, PAUSE and what would the social systems in which I live look like if they were oriented around justice?

What possibilities would I create if I live “as if” each day!

I am scared to let go of comforts and riches and habits and routines and prejudices and cliques and things that make life seem easier for me...even if they are false, short-lived, divisive, and even hollow. These things are familiar...like overstuffed chairs and bright lights. It is so hard to start doing things in new ways...to hang onto rainbows...to step into the darkness of the unknown even knowing You are there ahead of me, O Holy One. It's hard to live “as if” ...when others sneer or would call me foolish or push back against me.

This Lent, I long to live the Divine Love reflected in the Gospels. I open and pray for the courage to give myself to a new reality... walking the talk with Jesus to my own Jerusalem and beyond! Lord, I ask it! Amen!

✧ You may wish to name with God the things which you are holding onto...even though they do not move you along in your life or in your faith; or you may share a time you felt prepared to think and act differently even though others sneered; or you may simply invite Jesus to come sit beside you shining his healing light all around and through you.

✧Bible Wisdom Teachings

The Gospel of Thomas Saying #24

His followers said: “Show us the place where you are, because it is necessary that we seek it.”
He said to them, “Whoever has ears to hear, hear! There is light within a person of light, and that one lights up the entire world. If that one does not shine, there is darkness.”

The Gospel of Thomas Saying #34

Jesus said: “If a blind person leads a blind person, both will fall into a pit.”

Genesis 9:8-17

1 Peter 3:19-21a, 22- 23

✧Sharing Our Wisdom

✧ Affirming Our Faith with Intention...*Our Prayer (Poem by John O'Donohue, adapted)

May today there be peace within. May I trust God that I am exactly where I am meant to be. May I always remember the infinite possibilities that are born of doubt twinned with faith. May I use the gifts of love and life I have received, and pass on the love that has been given to me. May I be confident knowing I am a Child of Humanity. Let this settle into my bones, and allow my soul the freedom to sing, dance, praise and love...to live "as if" along the Way!
